

Comptroller in Third Row With Hylan in Week

Dispute Is Developed at Meeting of Board of Estimate; Craig Repeats Budget Meddling Charge

Two Positions Exempted Mayor Beaten in Move to Have Commissioners Outline Possible Savings

For the third time this week Mayor Hylan and Comptroller Craig aired their differences in public. The latest row developed at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Estimate. Like those that have gone before, it arose through Comptroller Craig's insistence that somebody had meddled with the 1920 budget of $317,000,000 when his back was turned.

Borough President Van Name, of Richmond, made several efforts to stop the dispute, but the Mayor and the Comptroller insisted on having it out. The row started after the reading of a letter from the Municipal Civil Service Commission informing the board that it had approved the placing of the secretary and stenographer of the Court House Board in the exempt class and conferring the appointive power on the board.

Craig Launched Attack Comptroller Craig fairly bristled while the letter was being read. "By what authority and by whose right," he asked, "do you place this application?" "The charter expressly provides that the secretary of the board can take no action on matters of this kind without the approval of the board," said the Mayor.

"I don't think that is necessary," said the Mayor. "Furthermore, these two items were included in the 1920 budget without my knowledge and consent." "The board is not clear on the matter because you were on your vacation," said the Mayor.

"To go or my vacation so he would be sure of getting the two positions," said the Mayor. "I don't think that is necessary," said the Mayor.

"He acted in good faith," said the Mayor. "The Comptroller has charges to make against any one who doesn't do it." "I haven't any charges to prefer, but I don't want to hesitate a moment to call to the attention of the board or to the public any illegal act," said the Mayor.

"There isn't anything illegal," reported the Mayor. "I just a question of the Comptroller not liking Hylan." "Use common sense," exclaimed Secretary Hagan to the Comptroller.

"I don't need any suggestions from you," the Comptroller said. "When you can run your office, the Chamberlain's office and all the other offices in the city you'll be satisfied," countered the Mayor.

Malcontents Air Views On England and America

Scott Nearing Emerges From Seclusion to Address Gathering of Radicals Here

Malcontents from England and the United States joined yesterday in the Anglo-American Conference, which was held in the Hotel McAlpin under the auspices of the Civil Liberties Bureau. The purpose of the gathering is to unite radicals in both countries.

The defense of the team act and the espionage act were belabored impartially by the speakers. W. Norman Ewer, an English editor, called attention to what he termed an international conspiracy of governments. In accordance with this understanding, he said, those who worked in one country to upset the government of another were dealt with just as severely as if they had done their plotting in the country whose government they assailed.

A youthful anarchist, who said his name was Turner and that he was twenty-three years old, rose to remark that he didn't believe in having any government. At the age of thirteen, he said, he had been banished from England, where he was "identified with the Labor party."

Smith Removes Sheriff Seaman Of Nassau Jail

Charges of Irregularities Brought by County Association Following Wilkins Suicide Are Responsible

Davis, Republican, Named Yale Graduate to Assume Office Until Successor Takes Oath in January

Charges which the Nassau County Association brought several weeks ago against Sheriff Phineas A. Seaman of Nassau County, following the investigation into the suicide of Dr. Walter K. Wilkins at the Nassau County jail, resulted yesterday in the removal of Sheriff Seaman by Governor Smith. Joseph E. Davis, a Republican and a member of the Nassau County Association and many clubs, was named by the Governor as successor to Sheriff Seaman. Seaman's term would have expired December 31.

Joseph M. Proskauer, who investigated the charges against Sheriff Seaman as special commissioner, recommended his dismissal. The unusual privileges and freedom of action accorded prisoners under the Sheriff's care at the Mineola jail were such, Mr. Proskauer reported, as to render it possible for a suicide like that of Dr. Wilkins to take place.

According to Mr. Proskauer's report, Sheriff Seaman was guilty not only of extraordinary leniency to prisoners, but also had encouraged and participated in certain official irregularities, which the special commissioner characterized as "both illegal and reprehensible." These alleged irregularities included the sale of county food to prisoners by the Sheriff's wife, who is matron of the jail, and the appointment of deputies by Sheriff Seaman for county fairs and races at $3 a day each, while he received $5 a day with which to pay them.

Called Matters of Custom In the explanation of the alleged irregularity of his conduct which he gave to Commissioner Proskauer, the Sheriff declared that so far as selling food bought by the county but cooked by his wife and appointing $5 deputies at $3 a day were concerned, those things were matters of custom. They always had been done, he said, and the appointment of Supervisors knew all about them.

After hearing unofficially last night of his removal, Sheriff Seaman said: "I am greatly surprised at the action of the board. I don't think I did anything wrong. I don't know what I did in this office, but I don't think I shall make any change."

He was graduated from Yale in 1900 and is in the coal business at 1 Broadway. During the time he is Sheriff of Nassau County, however, he intends to devote his entire time to that job. He is a native of West Virginia, a nephew of Senator Elkins and of Gasaway Davis, and is an ardent horseman.

During the year he was a commissioner of the county, he was in charge of his home in Heyday House, Roslyn. Formerly he was master of hounds of the Meadow Brook Hunt. He is a member of the Nassau County Country Club and Tennis, Piping Rock, Riding, Nassau Country, Turf and Field, Knickerbocker, Colony and Yale University clubs.

American Made Food Dictator in Vienna Dr. Herrward Geist to Have Charge of Feeding One Million Persons Daily

VIENNA, Oct. 24 (By The Associated Press).—The state government has turned over to Dr. Herrward Geist, of the American Relief Administration, the entire control of public feeding for the winter. The lack of fuel for cooking will necessitate feeding about one million persons at public kitchens agreed to by the Government and the American Relief Administration.

He will organize the kitchens and other necessary details and whatever importations are based upon Entente credits will be controlled and issued by him.

Chancellor Renner, in communications to the Vienna Municipal Council and to the government Food Controller, emphasizes the necessity of this action, which will coordinate the work of supplying food to the majority of the population. He says by this means he hopes to provide a million persons with one warm meal daily.

Hints at Early Presentment In Fare Case

Grand Jury Foreman Intimates Court Will Get Documentation; Boomerang to Plot Charge Is Expected

Startling Turn Expected Presentment by Panel Promised, but No Conspiracy Indictments Are Due

Intimation that a presentment would be handed up shortly by the extraordinary grand jury investigating the Interborough strike conspiracy charges was contained in a statement issued last night by Raymond F. Almirall, foreman of the grand jury, following publication of Governor Smith's decision not to replace District Attorney Swann in the case, despite the request by the jury.

Mr. Almirall made no detailed reply to accusations of District Attorney Swann that members of the jury were taken into consideration, speculation yesterday turned toward a possibly startling turn in the investigation.

Herbert Einstein, of H. G. Einstein & Co., brokers, of 25 Broad Street, a member of the grand jury, said that Mr. Swann as "a Wall Street stock broker specializing in the purchase and sale of the securities of the Interborough," was asked yesterday by the grand jury to state whether or not he was in the "crime which completely over shadowed that charged by the Mayor."

"I am a member of the grand jury and I am not privileged to talk at all," he replied. Asked to deny that he was a bondholder of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, Mr. Einstein said: "I can only say I wish I had the bonds I am given credit for."

Governor Smith's Letter Governor Smith's letter denying the request for supplanting District Attorney Swann was given out at a busy hour. It was received here by Mr. Almirall.

"I have no power to appoint an assistant District Attorney or to designate an assistant to the presentment," the letter stated. "The only power that I have is that given me by Section 62 of the executive law to require the Attorney General to defend in person or by one of his deputies any term of the Supreme Court or appear before the grand jury thereof for the purpose of managing and conducting in such court or before such jury such preliminary actions or proceedings as shall be specified in such requirements. This provision gives me no power to say whether the Attorney General shall appear in person or what deputy, if he chooses to send a deputy, shall be designated to perform the duties required by virtue of the exercise of this power."

"Should I exercise the power given me by this law, the effect, of course, would be to supersede the District Attorney. This power has seldom been exercised by the Governor and usually only in extreme cases. In my judgment it should be exercised with extreme caution and only when the Governor is satisfied beyond question that the interests of the public demand such exercise and when the Governor is satisfied beyond question that the District Attorney is either disqualified or is wilfully neglecting to perform his duty or is guilty of corrupt or illegal conduct."

The Overshadowing Crime "Holding these views, I deemed it my duty, and I did, submit to Judge Swann, the District Attorney of New York County, the facts containing your request and your accusations against him and his office, with the request to him to answer the same."

"I am enclosing you herewith a copy of his letter to me. The letter is a great measure, speaks for itself, but I wish particularly to call your attention to the latter part of the letter wherein Judge Swann states that he is unable to determine what is meant in your communication by the words that 'a crime which completely overshadows that charged by the Mayor may escape detection, and that if you or your jury will indicate either to him or to myself what crime you refer to in your communication every available resource of his office will be at your disposal to obtain and present the evidence thereof before either of the grand juries sitting in the County of New York which may be designated by the court to hear the same.'"

"The only way open to me to comply with your request would be to supersede, in the manner above mentioned, the elected District Attorney of New York County by the Attorney General. This, however, is seldom done and only on extreme occasions; and I do not deem this to be such an occasion."

Brooklyn Is Given 'Bus Lines to Fight Increase in Fares Board of Estimate Approves 3 Routes and Will Act on 7 Others Monday; B. R. T. to Appeal to Courts

Ten municipal bus lines will be in operation in Brooklyn within a fortnight, Grover A. Whalen, Commissioner of the Department of Plant and Structures, announced yesterday after the Board of Estimate and Apportionment had authorized the inauguration of three lines. The other seven will be up for approval before that body Friday.

One of the authorized lines started operation yesterday, following the action of the Board of Estimate. This, "The Coney Island Route," extended from Seagate and Surf Avenues to Fifth Street and the Coney Avenue station of the West End line. Surf Avenue and West Thirty-seventh Street to Mermaid Avenue, to West Seventh Street, across the bridge over Coney Island Creek to Bay Fifth Street and Croysey Avenue.

Means Fare Reduction "This will provide a 10-cent fare from Seagate to any point on the Fourth Avenue subway in Brooklyn and Manhattan," Commissioner Whalen said. "The present fare for passengers in the Coney Island section, which this route will accommodate, is 15 cents. The length of the route is about two miles."

Other two routes, which are promised to begin operation Monday morning, will accommodate residents of the Greenpoint and Park Slope sections. The terminals of the Greenpoint route will be at Croysey Avenue and Broadway, Brooklyn, and at Jackson Avenue and Fourth Street, Long Island City. The length of this route is three miles.

The Park Slope line will run from Windsor Place and Coney Island Avenue to Borough Hall, Brooklyn. This route, 2 1/2 miles, will replace the Sixth Avenue line, which has been discontinued, and will afford a direct connection, without transfers, to the shopping district on lower Fulton Street and Borough Hall.

Plans Hastened To Deport Alien Trouble Makers

House Committee Approves Exile of 1,700 1st-Papers Slackers; Ask Prison Colony in Philippines for Reds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Three steps to hasten the deportation of objectionable aliens now in this country were taken to-day.

Attorney General Palmer, in a letter to Chairman Colt of the Senate Immigration Committee, urged prompt action on the House bill empowering the Secretary of Labor to repatriate enemy aliens and aliens convicted of violation of certain specified statutes.

The House Immigration Committee approved an amendment to the Alien Slacker Deportation bill, under the provisions of which fifty-one aliens who without their alien citizenship papers to escape military service during the war, would be deported immediately. Members of the committee indicated that it was the purpose to recommend the deportation of all 1,700 aliens who withdrew their papers to avoid fighting under the American flag.

Alien Penal Colony Senator McKellar, Democrat, of Tennessee, introduced a bill providing for the deportation of aliens within five years unless they become naturalized. Another bill, submitted by Senator Culliver, Democrat, of Ohio, provided for the establishment of an anarchist prison colony on one of the Philippine Islands, to which persons convicted of attempting to overthrow the government would be deported.

Cooper Union Bars Socialists Because Of Radical Policy

Trustees Refuse to Grant Use of Auditorium for Address of Milwaukee Mayor, Member of Party

On the ground that the Socialist party is "disloyal to the government" the trustees of Cooper Union have closed their auditorium to Socialist meetings.

Since its erection in 1859 Cooper Union has been a favorite meeting place of radicals. Now, according to E. L. Behm, assistant secretary of the Union, it has become necessary to "discriminate against gatherings which oppose law and order."

The Socialists learned of this ruling Thursday, when Julius Smith, their campaign manager on the East Side, tried to rent the hall for an address by Daniel Hoan, Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee. His check for the rent of the auditorium was returned with the information that the meeting could not be held in Cooper Union.

Object to Party, Not Speaker "The trustees do not object to Mr. Hoan, but to his party," Mr. Behm explained. "Throughout the war the Socialist party was a national platform which was disloyal to the government."

County Bar Directors Approve Candidates

The report of the judiciary committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association, which passed favorably upon the fitness of a majority of the candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties for judicial office in Manhattan, was approved by the board of directors of the association.

In approving the report the board adopted the following resolutions: "Resolved, That the report presented by the judiciary committee be and the same hereby is approved by the board, and it is further

Resolved, That in approving the report of the judiciary committee the board of directors of the New York County Lawyers' Association reaffirms its adherence to the principle embodied in the resolution adopted by this board on April 3, 1914, to wit: 'The principle of retaining in the judges of experience and approved ability is now well established and should be maintained by this association generally; and that the board of directors believes that this principle should be applied to the case of Mr. Justice Andrews and that of Mr. Justice Smith, and that they should be re-elected.'

Believing that the judiciary is one branch of the government that should be independent and non-partisan, free from boss rule and political domination, and believing that only in this way can a healthy impartial and free judiciary be established that functioning part of the government upon which the life, liberty and property of the citizen depends, the independent thinking students of Columbia University, especially those of the Law School, who realize the importance of an unhampered and non-subservient judiciary, have banded themselves together to further the interests of this principle fully enunciated and call upon the manhood of Columbia University and New York City to lend its support to cause the Non-Partisan Judiciary, a clean judiciary, unbiassed and free from the spoils of political cabals, to meet in Earl Hall at noon Tuesday, October 28.

This is the first time in years that the students of Columbia have organized along political lines, and it is reported that, irrespective of their political affiliations, they are practically a unit for Newburger and Smith.

Seek Million for Hospitals Efforts will be made to-day to raise at least $1,000,000 of the $3,000,000 deficit of New York's forty-six hospitals that are carrying on free work in Manhattan and The Bronx with the opening of headquarters of the United Hospital Fund at 251 Madison Avenue. The general campaign for funds will be carried on during the week beginning November 17.

Since its erection in 1859 Cooper Union has been a favorite meeting place of radicals. Now, according to E. L. Behm, assistant secretary of the Union, it has become necessary to "discriminate against gatherings which oppose law and order."

The Socialists learned of this ruling Thursday, when Julius Smith, their campaign manager on the East Side, tried to rent the hall for an address by Daniel Hoan, Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee. His check for the rent of the auditorium was returned with the information that the meeting could not be held in Cooper Union.
